GUIDELINES FOR COPYING AND SCANNING

The copyright law of Canada governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyright material. Certain copying and scanning may be an infringement of copyright law.

You are solely responsible for knowing your rights and responsibilities under the Copyright Act. Humber College is not responsible for infringing copies made by users of these machines.

The fair dealing provision in the Copyright Act permits the copying and scanning of a short excerpt from a copyright-protected work, without permission or the payment of copyright royalties.

1. A student may copy and scan a single copy of a short excerpt from a copyright-protected work for the purposes of research, private study, criticism, review, news reporting, education, satire or parody.
2. A short excerpt means any one of the following:
 - a) up to 10% of a copyright-protected work (including a literary work, musical score, sound recording, and an audiovisual work).
 - b) one chapter from a book.
 - c) a single article from a journal or magazine.
 - d) an entire artistic work (including a painting, print, photograph, diagram, drawing, map, chart, and plan) from a copyright-protected work containing other artistic works.
 - e) an entire newspaper article or page.
 - f) an entire single poem or musical score from a copyright-protected work containing other poems or musical scores.
 - g) an entire entry from an encyclopedia, annotated bibliography, dictionary or similar reference work.
3. A single copy of a short excerpt from a copyright-protected work may be posted to Blackboard because it is password protected and restricted to students of a particular course.
4. Copying for the purpose of news reporting, criticism or review must mention the source and, if given in the source, the name of the author or creator of the work.
5. Copying or scanning multiple short excerpts from the same work, with the intent to copy most or all of the work is prohibited.
