

Computer Use Policy

Students, faculty and staff

The computers in the Library and Learning Commons are intended for current students, faculty and staff of Humber and University of Guelph-Humber. They are available to use for online research, independent learning and class assignments.

Alumni and prospective students

Humber and University of Guelph-Humber alumni, as well as prospective students with OSAP or application-related questions, are welcome to access the Library computers for up to one hour per day. Access is on a first-come, first-served basis. Please bring your alumni card or photo ID for entry.

Due to vendor licensing restrictions, alumni and prospective students cannot access:

- Online articles
- eBooks
- Streaming videos

The public

Public users may not sign into Library computers, but are welcome to use Humber's public Wi-Fi on their own devices. Please refer to the Acceptable Use Policy for Digital Services.
