

Welcome to The Library

Hi everyone, welcome to Humber and the University of Guelph-Humber!

Set yourself up for academic success by getting to know what the Library has to offer.

Throughout your studies you can count on the library's resources and services to support you.

You'll find us at Humber's North and Lakeshore Campuses, the International Graduate School, and online at library.humber.ca.

The Library's print and electronic collections support the programs and subject areas studied at the College and University.

In-person, browse the shelves to find everything from research material to leisure reading.

To borrow print books from the Library, use ONECard at circulation desks, self-checkout machines and the International Graduate School's Book Lending Machine.

You can search our collections using the library website. We have access to hundreds of thousands of books, eBooks, journals, magazines, music, and streaming videos.

Access these items from anywhere by signing in with your Humber Username.

The library's friendly, knowledgeable Library team are readily available to support you with research and assignments.

Drop by the Research Help desk during library hours for one-on-one support.

You can also connect with us online.

During business hours, Library team members are available to chat. Just click the chat icon found on all Library pages.

Or schedule a research appointment with a librarian.

We also have tutorials and resource guides to further support your studies.

To explore these services, head to library.humber.ca.

Visit the Library and Learning Commons spaces at the North and Lakeshore Campuses to explore and access:

- Bookable group study rooms equipped with collaborative multimedia equipment;
- Quiet study rooms and individual seating;

- Windows and Mac computer workstations;
- Adaptive technology workstations;
- Printers (both black and white and colour) with copying and scanning functions.

To support students with childcare responsibilities, the North Library Children's Area offers a space for caregivers and kids to study and play side by side.

Need support with a digital assignment or looking to book a studio space?

Build your digital skills by accessing the Idea Lab's studio spaces, workshops, and resources.

Learn to create engaging videos, podcasts, infographics, websites and presentations through our self-guided workshops and tutorials.

The Idea Lab at the North Campus has bookable studio spaces including video, audio, and 3D printing stations.

In addition to bookable video studios and 3D printing, the Lakeshore Idea Lab features laser and vinyl cutting, sewing, an audio recording booth, and music production tools.

Check out library.humber.ca/idealab for more information.

Visit the Humber Archives to explore thousands of fascinating items from Humber's history, including student newspapers, photographs and more. Browse rotating exhibits and chat with our knowledgeable and friendly archival team.

The Archives are located in LRC 4068 in the North Library.

We look forward to supporting you throughout your journey at Humber and the University of Guelph-Humber.
